A Gift for Mom...

Melinda moved her ailing Mom, Toni, to Fort Worth. Mother and daughter, Toni & Melinda, moved next door to Chaplain & CQEC Board member David Lowe. Little did they know how important their lives would be to one another.

Toni had always expressed her end-of-life wishes to Melinda, but David helped Melinda understand how vital it was to have these wishes written out ahead of time.

David wanted to ensure that Melinda would be prepared if the time came to make decisions on Toni's behalf.

David was at Melinda's side when the day came for her to respect Toni's wishes.

While it was very difficult to witness, Melinda expressed through tears to the doctor her Mom's wishes, they both knew it was what Toni wanted.

Melinda did not realize until afterwards just how much that was a gift from her mom – to be able to speak for her, when mom could not.

This is a true story, one that ended well thanks to the Coalition for Quality End-of-Life Care (CQEC) and programs it provides to inform choices we face at the end-of-life. Some of these decisions are tough calls, and the Coalition is here to help.
